I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.

to walk as ONE™

A very experienced nun taught the fifth grade class in our parish school. The class was a smart bunch, with strong personalities and a very competitive spirit. But they picked on students who were different, or who were slower, or who had physical or learning difficulties, without realizing just how hurtful they could be. Through a series of activities and conversations, the good sister helped students see how everyone had something to contribute to the class. They discovered they were more alike than different and a new spirit of cooperation and respect soon emerged in the class. She knew that once they knew the person who went with the name, they would better appreciate each other and be a bit more accepting of one another's shortcomings.

Our homes need to be places of acceptance and support, places where we are known and loved for who we are and what we offer that makes our family and our marriage unique. There will be times of conflict and moments that will test every virtue we have. But home needs to be a secure place where we learn to be ourselves, and where we see that we are more alike than we are different. Wherever we go, we take a bit of home with us. It is the moral compass that keeps us straight and the example of love that keeps us secure. Give your loved ones a bit of room to stretch and grow, to make mistakes and recover, to find their strength and their weakness, and to experience themselves in the safety of your love.

A Very Blessed and Happy Mother's Day

A Prayer for all mothers
Heavenly Father, we thank you for all the amazing mothers around the world who have shown unconditional love and sacrifice. They have brought all of us into this world and cared for us with the most pure love, as Mary did for You. We thank you for the precious gift of motherhood that is perfectly designed to bring out the best in each child. Bless every mother abundantly with good health and protection from harm. Fill them with Your peace and joy. Provide them with strength when they are weary. Heal them from any pain or sickness. Lead them in oaths of righteousness that lead to blessing after blessing, all the days of their lives. Amen.

Our Alfred Weldon Scholarship applications are available for you to download on our Council site: koc12710.org. The deadline is May 30th. Recipients will be notified by June 7th. Good luck to all our applicants!

May God's peace and blessings be with you and your family,

Our Lady of Fatima

20TH CENTURY
FEAST DAY: MAY 13

Mary appeared to three peasant children near Fatima, Portugal, six times between May 13 and October 13, 1917, and asked for prayers for world peace and an end to World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. She entrusted the children with three secrets, regarding devotion to her Immaculate Heart, a vision of hell, and a "bishop in white" shot by soldiers firing bullets and arrows. Many connect the third secret to the attempted assassination of Blessed Pope John Paul II on May 13, 1981, and the pope thanked Mary for guiding the bullet and saving him. At the Vatican last October 13, Pope Francis stood before the statue of Our Lady from the Fatima shrine and formally entrusted the world to Mary.
